FORMAN VINEYARD 2014 CABERNET SAUVIGNON CHATEAU LA GRANDE ROCHE NAPA VALLEY

Chateau La Grande Roche is Forman Vineyard's second label from Ric Forman, a legend in Napa. He established this second label to assure that the Forman Cabernet will always be created from only the very best lots in a given year. Forman is the "Reserve." Chateau La Grande Roche is made up of those lots that didn't make the cut for the Forman label. It is made with all of the same care and dedication as Forman, as well as sourced from the same hillsides vines surrounding the winery.

La Grande Roche is named after the gigantic pink and gray boulders that the winery was carved from, at the base of Howell Mountain. Production of this classic Cabernet is very small. It's made with the same attention as all Forman Cabernets, with fruit from the same vineyards, but at a fraction of the price
